Summer Salon 13th Anniversary

“What’s New” Members Exhibition

June, 2010

Studio Montclair is pleased to present the artwork of its members in Summer Salon 13th Anniversary “What’s New” Members’ Exhibition. The exhibit will be on display at Montclair Public Library from June 1st through June 30th. All are invited to attend the opening reception, to be held Thursday, June 10, 6:00 to 9:00pm, with the SMI Annual Meeting at 7pm.

This year, SMI is honored to have Peter Jacobs as curator for the Summer Salon. Well-known collage artist and photographer, Mr. Jacobs has widely exhibited his art for over two decades both nationally and abroad, including five museum exhibitions and two biennials. His work is included in museum, corporate, and private collections. Jacobs is a recipient of the prestigious Fellowship award from the NJ State Council on the Arts. He has lectured at the Flushing Council on the Arts, Montclair Art Museum, College at Morris, Nassau Community College, and has been on the exhibition committee and a curator at The Pierro Gallery of South Orange since 2003.

Montclair Public Library is located at 50 South Fullerton Road, Montclair, NJ. The Library hours are Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 10am to 8pm, Friday and Saturday 10am-6pm, and Sunday 12pm-6pm. The exhibition and reception are free to the public. For additional information please contact Studio Montclair at studiomontclair@aol.com, visit our website, www.studiomontclair.org, or call (973) 744-1818.

Studio Montclair is a non-profit organization of exhibiting professional and emerging artists and others interested in the visual arts. The mission of the organization is to promote culture and education in the visual arts.
