FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Montclair, NJ (November, 2017) – Studio Montclair (SMI) announces its first-ever benefit sale and exhibition of postcard- size art, “Greetings from Montclair,” to take place at Gallery 491 in Montclair on Friday, December 15 from 6:30 to 9pm. All visual artists are encouraged to participate (membership in SMI is not required) and can do so by donating up to three 4”x 6” works of original art. Painting, drawing, photography, printmaking, and mixed media are all welcome.

Each postcard will be priced at $35 and offered on a first-come first- served basis. The work will be displayed anonymously, with the identity of the artist revealed only after the work has sold. All proceeds from the evening will go toward funding Studio Montclair’s new home and gallery space opening December 3 at 127 Bloomfield Ave in Downtown Montclair.

Organizers RitaMarie Cimini and Gina Murray state, “We’re thrilled to make original, affordable artwork available to the public at the height of the holiday shopping season. For an art lover, it’s the perfect opportunity to add to their own collection or share their love with a friend or family member. “

Artists interested in participating must RSVP by Friday, November 24. To do so, please visit Studio Montclair’s website, <http://studiomontclair.org>, which also provides information on delivery and drop-off dates.
